

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ACLU OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY,

Defendants.

No. LA CV18-08917 JAK (JEMx)

ORDER RE DEFENDANTS' EX
PARTE APPLICATION TO STAY
THE ENTIRE CASE DUE TO THE LAPSE OF APPROPRIATIONS (DKT.
16)

Based on a review of Defendants' Application For A Stay Of The Entire Case Due To The Lapse Of Appropriations (the "Application") (Dkt. 16), good cause has been shown. Therefore, the Application is GRANTED IN PART. Due to the lapse in appropriations to the Department of Justice, the entire case is PARTIALLY STAYED until Department of Justice attorneys are permitted to resume their usual civil litigation functions. All dates and deadlines that have been set in this matter are VACATED. Within five days of a change in the status of appropriations to the Department of Justice, the parties shall file a joint report stating their collective and/or respective views

1 regarding the dates and deadlines that should be set. The joint report shall attach a
2 proposed order consistent with the report.

3 IT IS SOORDERED.
